

Unlocking the Power of Eight: Introducing the Harmony Hive Coaching Collective for Women of Color

USA - Deep within the United States, a profound symbol springs to life – the meaningful power of eight. This emblematic number encapsulates the very soul of the Harmony Hive Coaching Collective, an extraordinary experience custom-crafted solely for women of color. Guided by a dynamic collaboration of seasoned professionals certified by the International Coaching Federation (ICF), representing diverse backgrounds and successful career trajectories, this transformative enterprise is proudly unveiled by Career Doctor Consulting, LLC, under the leadership of Chief Executive ICF Leadership & Career Coach, Jacqueline Crittle – a trusted partner with Chief, Women in Sports & Events (WISE), The Mom Project, and a track record of numerous triumphs with Fortune 500 executive clients worldwide.

Within this intimate coaching experience, empowerment is bestowed upon minority women – those ascending the initial rungs of supervisory roles as well as those reigning in C-suite executive domains. They unite in hives of eight, embracing an eight-month metamorphosis. The number eight signifies the ideals of infinity, prosperity, and abundance. Across cultures, it embodies balance and harmony. This transformative encounter is meticulously designed to foster leadership irrespective of one's position on the career continuum, navigating the economic challenges prevailing in corporate America.

The embrace of the Harmony Hive Coaching Collective encompasses a spectrum of pivotal themes combined with mindfulness and wellbeing. This journey amplifies the experiences of Black and Latina professionals across distinctive career stages, including C-suite, executive, mid-level, and early career, thereby catering to their unique demands. We adeptly navigate the intricate landscape of male-dominated sectors, conquer the imposter syndrome that undermines confidence, dismantle barriers to advancement throughout the corporate hierarchy, and strive for the seamless integration of work and personal life, tailored to the distinct needs of professionals at every juncture of their careers.

From honing executive presence to nurturing authenticity as mentors, refining the art of storytelling, and elevating empathetic communication, we craft a versatile toolkit. For women aspiring to break into the C-suite, this transformative journey empowers them to shatter barriers, hone leadership skills, and pave their path to executive success; while for C-suite professionals, it's an opportunity to further amplify their impact, refine their strategic acumen, and foster holistic leadership that resonates across their domains inspiring the next generation of female leaders. For mid-level and early career professional females, this transformative journey fuels their rise but also provides them with invaluable skills, resilience, and a strategic mindset, accelerating their ascent while benefiting from the guidance and role modeling, they experience from their executive peers.
